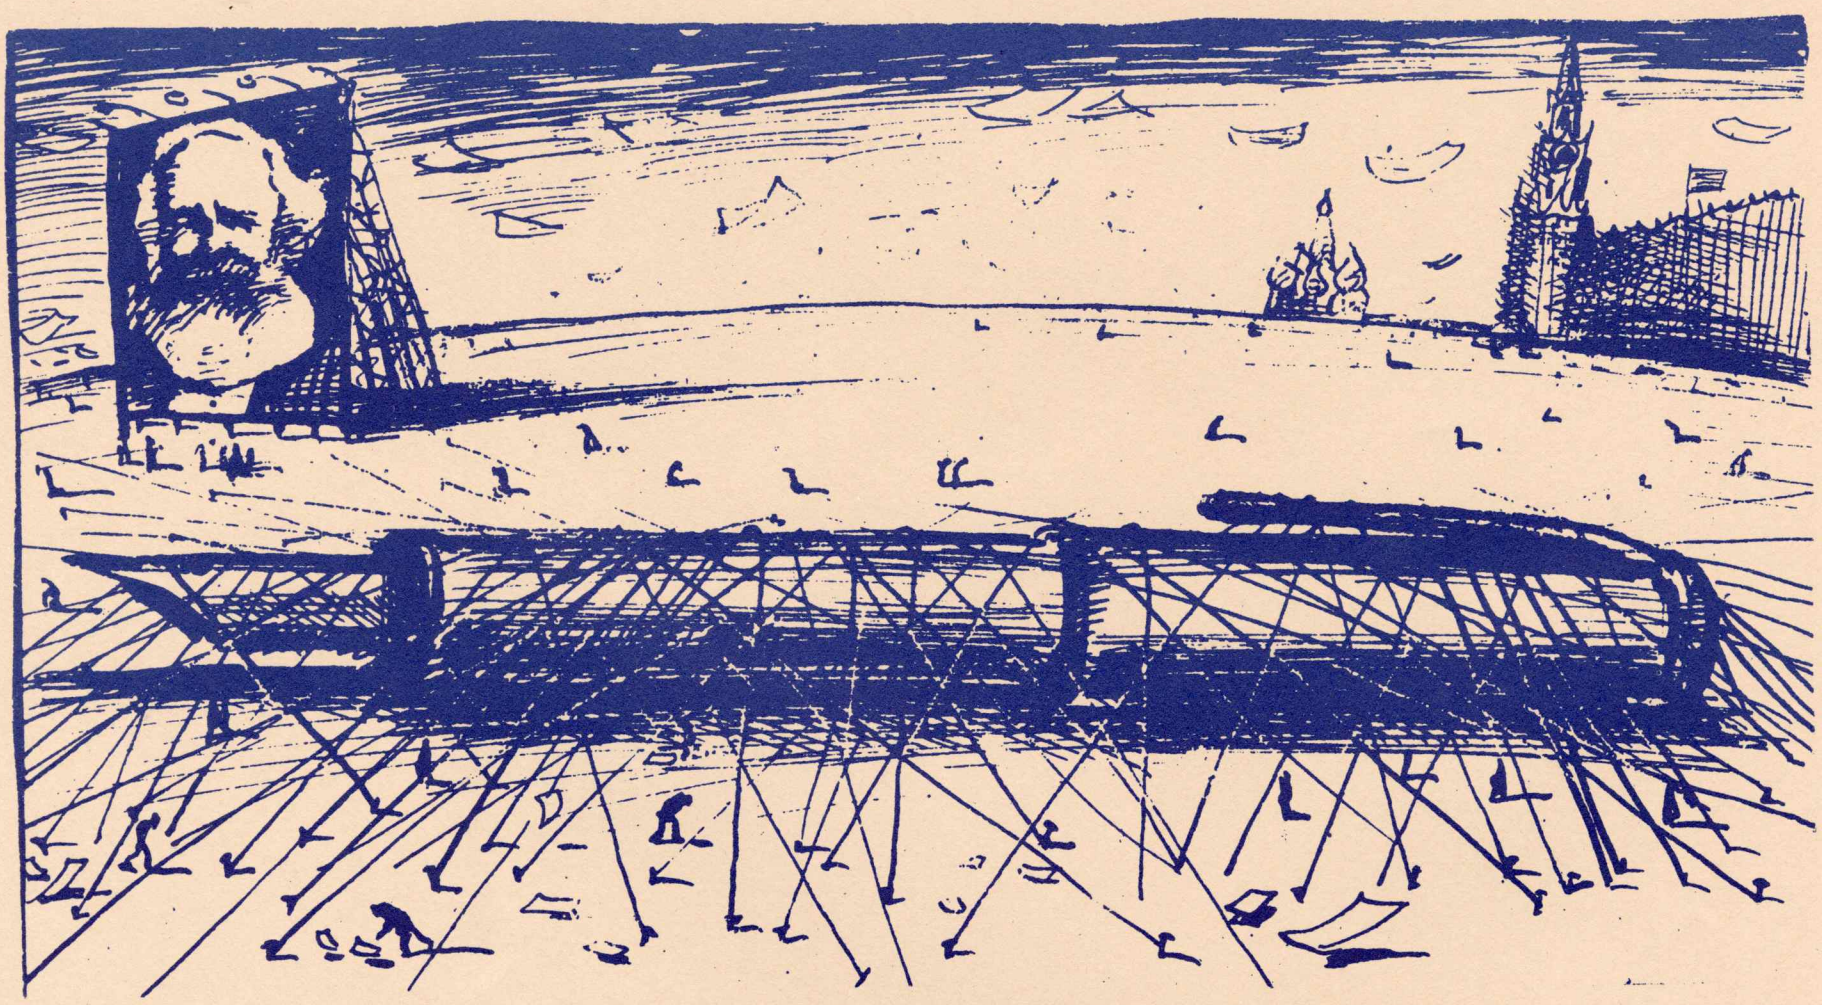
Liberal Arts College
Public Lecture
George Rudé Lecture

IS PERESTROIKA IN DANGER?

ABRAHAM BRUMBERG



Abraham Brumberg is an eminent scholar specializing in Eastern European politics. He has previously been Visiting Fellow of the London School of Economics (1970-1972), Guest Scholar at the Kennan Institute of Advanced Russian Studies (1978-1980) and Visiting Fellow at Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies (1987-1988). Mr. Brumberg's professional experience includes positions as Director, Soviet and East European Desk, External Research Division, U.S. Department of State (1975-1978), and Special Advisor on Soviet and East European Affairs.

Mr. Brumberg has published extensively. His articles and reviews have appeared in Foreign Affairs, The New York Review of Books, The Economist, The New York Times, and many other newspapers and journals. He has edited several books including Russia Under Khruschev (Praeger) 1962; The Dragon and the Bear: International Communism and the Sino-Soviet Dispute (Lancer), 1964; In Quest of Justice: Protest and Dissent in the Soviet Union Today (Praeger), 1972; Poland: Genesis of a Revolution (Random House), 1983 and Perestroika: Chronicle of a Revolution (Pantheon), Spring 1990.

DATE : Thrusday, 30 November 1989

TIME : 8:30 p.m.

PLACE : H-110, Hall Building
1455 de Maisonneuve Blvd. W.
Sir George Williams Campus

Telephone: 848-2565

Concordia UNIVERSITY